Dance Obispo: Dance Obispo is a ballet-based studio offering beginning through advanced levels of classical ballet, jazz, and other dance forms, to the San Luis Obispo area from Santa Maria to Paso Robles. Dance Obispo's instructors are professionally trained and experienced and provide outstanding dance classes in a supportive and positive environment. Parents can feel comfortable with their young children in class, teenage children will find a positive and effective outlet for physical activity, and there are many opportunities for adults to dance.

Ballet Theatre San Luis Obispo: Theresa Slobodnik established Ballet Theatre San Luis Obispo in the spring of 2006, presenting its first full program featuring the works of Gilbert Reed. Following Ms. Slobodnik's retirement from professional dancing and the closing of The Gilbert Reed Ballet, the company was formed to give serious ballet dancers opportunity to dance professional, meaningful work in real theatres. Ballet Theatre San Luis Obispo is committed to outreach education, providing abridged performances of its programs through YOPAC (Youth Outreach for the Performing Arts Center) to area school students.
